Call for Volunteers 2019

We are looking for volunteers to assist at Look Again Visual Art & Design Festival, taking place on the 6 – 9 June 2019.

Volunteer Information:

Look Again Volunteers will be integral to the festival, as they will be the first point of call for the public wishing to participate, or obtain more information about the artworks, talks and events. Volunteers will be situated indoors and outdoors at various sites throughout the city centre and will support the organisers throughout Look Again and, where possible, promote the festival through social media to aid in engaging the public with the artworks.

What do we look for in a volunteer?

- Be available 6 – 9 June 2018 between hours of 10-5 (tbc).
- Be confident and have good conversation skills.
- Be friendly, enthusiastic and outgoing.
- Familiar with social media platforms.
- Able to follow instruction and work well in a team.

What does being a volunteer with Look Again entail?

- Answering questions, supplying information and conversing with the public, helping people to understand and engage with the festival and artworks.
- Working indoors and outdoors.
- Promoting events online through social media (where possible).

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer with Look Again, working with a fun team, and gaining experience from this unique opportunity, please get in touch at:
